An 11-Day Adventure on the Mexican Riviera and Sea of Cortez!

Manzanillo: This beautiful port city on two bays is regarded as the 'Sailfish Capital of the World.' Activities are centered on the water and culinary delights inspired by the fruits of the sea.

Puerto Vallarta: A scenic destination on Banderas Bay and a world-famous setting, the town offers something for everyone, from fun-in-the-sun activities to historic and cultural attractions.

Mazatlán: One of a few colonial towns on the coast, with great weather, miles of beautiful beaches, a thriving cultural scene, fantastic fresh seafood, and a friendly community of local inhabitants.

Loreto*: A hidden jewel with peaceful charm and dazzling landscapes. This secluded paradise offers an array of outdoor activities, and has a quaint "hometown" feel.

Pichilingue (La Paz): Friendly and vibrant, this whale-watching mecca is nestled in a bay along the Sea of Cortez. Visit palm-lined streets, take a stroll and shop the wares of local artisans.

Cabo San Lucas*: "The Capes" feature varied geography for plenty of exciting and interesting day trips. Awe-inspiring beaches, crystal-clear waters, and desert landscapes await.

Tender required. Wheelchair access is limited.*
